

CRUISING in CAP ROCAT

Guests staying at Cap Rocat this summer have the option to cruise Mallorca in style with the Dolce Vita driving experience. Guests will be greeted at the 18th century military fortress with champagne on arrival, for a two night stay in a Cap Rocat suite and a classic car of their choice to hand for two full days - with routes recommended by the concierge and a Cap Rocat picnic hamper for re-fuelling en-route.

Cap Rocat opened in 2010 as a paragon of authentic Mallorcan elegance and embodies bare-foot luxury with original fittings - bullets for door handles and old canons used as tables - while touches like the sleek infinity pool on the fortress wall earn Cap Rocat its boutique and indulgent feel.

From 1,950€ for two - for two nights in a Cap Rocat Suite, B&B, two days car hire, picnic for two, return airport transfers and champagne on arrival.

SAX IN THE CITY

The Saxon Boutique Hotel, Villas & Spa's newest offering, Saxon Quinu Grill, is sure to enhance South Africa's gastronomic reputation. The Saxon Boutique Hotel, Villas and Spa is an international award-winning Hotel in the beautiful, tranquil suburb of Sandhurst with its tree-lined avenues, and close proximity to Sandton, Johannesburg's upmarket business area.

Executive Chef David Higgs and his team were in high spirits with the official launch of the new eatery. Saxon Quinu Grill exudes the warmth of the hotel's African heritage from its rich surroundings, red tones, woven lampshades and ambient glow, enhanced by the remarkable hanging gardens.

The restaurant's Xhosa name pays homage to the Eastern Cape village where Nelson Mandela was born. Mr. Mandela credits Quinu as being the place where he spent some of his happiest childhood moments and after his retirement he again made it his home.
